

■ Multiculturally Informed Supervision

Learn about multicultural competence in supervision through several models that exist to better understand cultural identity including: ADDRESSING and RESPECTFUL models, multicultural social justice competencies, and the broaching continuum.

Students: $15
Professionals: $30

Register here:

<https://csac.umsl.edu/clinical-trainings-and-workshops/workshop-schedule/>

Contact us at 314-516-4613 or csac@umsl.edu for more information.

FEBRUARY 25, 2023

9:30 am - 12:30 pm

Virtual - Live-Stream

Mary Martha Abernathy, MA, LPC, NCC

Monica Phelps-Pineda, MS, PLPC, NCC

All participants will be provided with a certification of completion for attendance. Continuing education credits will be available at no additional charge. Counseling and Social Advocacy Center @ UMSL is an NBCC approved continuing education provider (#3054)